

St George's Times Summer 2015

Holiday Care

Will you be struggling for childcare in the school holidays when your child leaves for school? Well there is no need. At St. George's we provide holiday care for all school age children up to the age of 10 years. We organise trips, activities, crafts and games suited to their age group. If you would like further information please ask the manager at your site.

Notice

Please remember that if your child is leaving the nursery you need to provide us with 5 weeks notice in writing or 6 weeks notice if your child is term time only. Thank you

Dates for your Diary

Friday 10th July is the last day for our funded children. We hope to see some of you again next term.

Monday 31st August the nurseries will be closed for Bank Holiday

New funding term will commence Tuesday 1st September

Half term break is 19th – 23rd October 2015

Items needed

We are all looking for the following items for our mud kitchens:

- Pots and Pans
- Kettles
- Microwaves
- Toasters
- Cutlery

Sun cream

As we are getting more sunshine please can you provide your child with sun cream to use whilst playing outside, thank you.

Photographer

Our photographer has been to all our sites now for graduation shoots and photos, these will be back to you soon to place your orders.
